

Application form (chor.com 2026):
Choral Conducting Masterclass with Anne Kohler,
Tine Fris-Ronsfeld an studio choir *Pop-Up

1 - 4 October 2026, Leipzig

Under the direction of Anne Kohler and Tine Fris-Ronsfeld, the four-day chor.com-masterclass in choral conducting offers choir directors the opportunity to individually develop their skills in the areas of conducting, rehearsal methodology, stylistics and presence in front of the ensemble. The focus is on timing, sound, phrasing, balance, and gestural and verbal communication. Participants can immediately put what they have learned into practice with the Pop-Up Detmold studio choir. A concert in Leipzig, conducted by the participants themselves, concludes the masterclass on Sunday, 4 October 2026.

Participants:

The masterclass is primarily aimed at experienced choir conductors who wish to further their education. The number of active participants is limited to six to eight people. Selected parts of the masterclass will also be accessible to passive participants (listeners). The masterclass is held in German and English.

Applications for active participation:

To apply as an active participant in the masterclass, fill out this application form. Please include:

- a concert recording where you direct
- a short rehearsal recording where you lead
- a song sung by the applicant, accompanying themselves

Please send all three documents via e-mail to [projektbuero\[at\]deutscher-chorverband.de](mailto:projektbuero[at]deutscher-chorverband.de). Links to YouTube and other online platforms (Dropbox, ...) are welcomed. Please name the documents as follows: FirstnameLastname_Application form or CV or Video

Alternatively, you may send a DVD via postal service to: Deutscher Chorverband e. V., chor.com/Kohler+Fris-Ronsfeld, Karl-Marx-Str. 145, 12043 Berlin, Germany.

The closing date for applications is 30 June 2026. A selection of the active participants will be made by mid- August 2026.
