

Choral Conducting Masterclass with Florian Helgath and Zürcher Sing-Akademie

1 - 4 Oktober 2026, Leipzig

This chor.com-masterclass in choral conducting with Florian Helgath covers various aspects of working with choirs. The focus is on developing and refining conducting skills, gestures and rehearsal techniques using a variety of works from the Romantic to the Modern periods. Participants will have the opportunity to put what they have learned into practice with the Zürcher Sing-Akademie. A concert in Leipzig, conducted by the participants themselves, will conclude the masterclass on Sunday, 4 October 2026.

Master teacher:

Florian Helgath has established himself internationally as one of the leading choral conductors. As Artistic Director and Chief Conductor of Chorwerk Ruhr and the Zürcher Sing-Akademie, he has shaped the ensembles into top international choirs of the highest calibre, both with a cappella music as well as in the field of choral symphonies.

Florian Helgath gained his first musical experience with Regensburger Domspatzen and at Hochschule für Musik und Theater Munich. Michael Gläser, Stefan Parkman and Dan Olof Stenlund were among his formative teachers who had a decisive influence on his development as a conductor.

His international success include winning prizes in competitions such as the Eric Ericson Award 2006, the Competition For Young Choral Conductors 2007 in Budapest and the Choral Conductors' Forum of Bavarian Radio 2007.

In 2020, Florian Helgath was appointed Professor at the Hochschule für Musik und Tanz in Cologne. Since 2024 he has been Professor of Choral Conducting at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater Munich.

Choir:

For the Zürcher Sing-Akademie, tonal excellence and musical expression are paramount. Since its founding in 2011, the ensemble has grown to become an established fixture in the professional choral world in Europe. Since the season 2017-18, Florian Helgath has been shaping the choir's profile as its artistic director.

Working with numerous top conductors has had a decisive influence on the quality and flexibility of the ensemble. The Zürcher Sing-Akademie performs symphonic repertoire in cooperation with various outstanding orchestras in Europe's major concert halls and, with its a cappella programmes, places a special focus on Swiss choral music. This diversity is documented in an exciting range of CD recordings.

Repertoire:

- Johannes Brahms (1833 – 1897): Fünf Gesänge op 104
- Frank Martin (1890 – 1974): Messe für zwei vierstimmige Chöre a cappella
- Frank Martin: Songs of Ariel (aus: Shakespeares „The Tempest“)
